Another Bible Study Friday is upon us!

Am I the only one who desperately needs a good listen from the Almighty now? Oh man, what a day!

Ok ok, today's study will be in the lovely chapter of Mark. Enjoy:

Mark 12:30

"And you must love the Lord your God with all your heart, all your soul, all your mind, and all your strength."

Oh what a short but glorious verse. It truly reminds us what's most important in this world.

I leaned out onto this verse because I needed something to remind me of what to focus on in this life.

This week has been so crazy. We become more powerful the more we put our lives over to God. He really is great!

Trouble with coworkers? What about any family drama? God wants us to lean onto Him with any issues we may carry. He doesn't want us to feel stressed out.

We need to make Him famous to everyone! Honor and adore His amazing words. Let others know the truth about who He is! I don't know about you, but I have heard many different stories about what people think He is like. It kind of reminds me of that "telephone" game that we used to play during our childhood years. Crazy how that 'rumor mill' spreads, right? Let's focus and never stop wanting to learn the truth! He is the absolute most important in the heavens and earth! No amount of tears and anger caused by mankind can win. God is with us! Don't fight it!

Our minds, our souls, and our wellbeing will definitely be a lot calmer. I know this as a fact. It works for me. Divulge into His word. Find the truth! The answers you are looking for is closer than you think. He is here!

Follow Him with your whole heart. His grace is bigger than all sins.

Let Him in. Let Him be the most important in your life.
